6/3/2022	1:00 PM	2:00 PM	REPRESENTATION IN ANIME PANEL	Zeno Robinson	Westin	Melody 2	Representation has been a hot topic in anime for the past couple of years, with the industry making some significant strides in more equal opportunity casting as well as a gradual change in more diverse casts. I'd love to facilitate a panel of POC or just black actors in a discussion about where the industry is going, what they feel their place in it is, and how they feel about the nature of casting and what they'd like to see. As usual, this can be followed by an audience Q&A. Representation is important and it would be good for those who feel represented to get an opportunity to speak. Perhaps in turn, to separate this panel from others, we can also ask, as the creatives, what we think audiences would like to see in their English Dub casts as far as representation

6/4/2022	12:00 PM	1:00 PM	TAKE THIS DUB: A Discussion	Zeno Robinson	Irving Convention Center	Panel 12	Dubs can be highly polarizing today. Some people love them, some people hate them. I think it would be great to have an open discussion with fans of anime who watch both to talk about what they like, or don't like, about dubs, and most importantly, what we think makes a GOOD dub and how can we as an industry continue to do so. I imagine this could be a discussion with a panel of 3-5 industry experts, including an actor, writer, adapter, and director. We could start off with a compilation of dub clips (both "good" and "bad") and then go into a discussion of how dubs are made, how much work goes into it, and how we think we can improve, then open the floor to audience input for a back and forth. Maybe everyone can get some perspective.
